The name's origins

The family name Saint-Cyr and St-Cyr can often be traced to a specific place in France. We have been able to find three different sources in Québec.

The first source of the family three is that of Pierre Deshaies St-Cyr. Pierre was born in St-Vivien de Rouen, Normandy, France on March 12th, 1648. His father, Alexandre St-Cyr was born on May 16th, 1624 in Normandy, France. His mother, Marie Anne Deshaies was born on April 20, 1624 at Saint-Vivien de Rouen in Normandy, France.

Built before the XIIIth century as a small thatched straw covered building, the Saint Vivien de Rouen church was renovated in the XVII century and again 1860. It presently stands and is in use in our present day.

Pierre's father, Alexandre, died in Sainte-Pazanne, Brittany, France on June 11th, 1695 at the age of 71 years old. His mother, Marie Anne died on May 18th, 1704 in Sainte-Pazanne, Brittany, France at the age of 80 years old.

From the census of 1666 and 1667, we learn that the 19 year old Pierre is a hired-hand for Marie Boucher, widow of Etienne Lafond of Trois-Rivières, Québec. Most colonists immigrating to New-France in the XVIIth century were either working for the government, a religious establishment or a prosperous colonist.

According to Camille St-Cyr, on July 12, 1676, Pierre marries Marguerite Guillet, daughter of Pierre Guillet Lajeunesse and Jeanne de St-Pair. The couple move to Becancourt to clear the forest for land. He takes on civic duty functions and is named captain of the militia for the fiefdom of Dufort.

To this day, one will find the descendants of Pierre Deshaies St-Cyr and Jacques Rouillard in several regions of Québec. Some have kept the surname of their direct ancestor and others have adopted the surname Saint-Cyr, St-Cyr.

From the origin of Pierre Deshaies several others have been changed, the line of Cyrenne, Sirenne and Tourigny.

In January of 1665 Pierre Deshaies St-Cyr left his parents to seek work in the port of Saint-Malo. He found work loading a boat with wheat, oats, corn, flour, sugar, raisins and salt, 500 gallons of lantern oil, various woods, cutlery, pots, wool and cloths.

Saint-Malo is a port situated on the English Channel on the La Rance Estuary. The town stretches onto a low lying coastal plateau. The rocky coast line has beaches here and there.

The discovery of the Americas and the development of commerce with India stimulated the economic development and prosperity of Saint-Malo. Ship owners increase in number and different persons give Saint-Malo an excellent réputation. Jacques Cartier discovers and explores Canada, pirates raise havoc with the marine merchants as well as with enemy navies.

In Canada, the ship owners were reimbursed the hired-hand's travel costs by the established farmers who needed the help. The farmer then benefitted from the the hired-hands three years of service. Once the three year contract was up, the hired-hand could then work and rent land by accepting to work for the Seigneurie.

The Seigneurie would grant the colonist a section of land from which the colonist was obligated to pay an annual fee (in cash or agricultural products), provide labour to the Seignury along with a share of his crops.

The renter also promised to clear the forest on the land and to use the Seignury's mill from which a share of the milled grain was also given to the Seignury.

Pierre decided to undertake to come to New France. He was 18 years when he embarked on a 300 ton ship belonging to Pierre Gaigneur. The capitain's name is unknown.

The Compagnie des Cent-Associés or Compagnie de la Nouvelle-France was founded on April 29, 1627 by Cardinal Richelieu, minister under Louis XIII. Its purpose was to establish the French empire from Florida to the Arctic and from the Atlantic to the unknown West. It also held a monopoly on the fur trade.

80% of immigrants are male with an average age of 24 years. Gernerally, he is a bachelor with little or no formal éducation, although 57 colonists can sign their names. Even if the hired-hand commoner is obligated to «La Compagnie des Cent Associés» for three years, he never the less generally waits another two years before taking land for himself. Usually another five years lapses before the bachelor marries. The so few ladies on the other hand were usually married within a year.

The development of New France was given to the merchant companies in 1627. One of these being La Compagnie des Cent-Associés. This company was responsible for the organization and the colonization of New France. Owing this vast territory, this company had a monopoly to exploit for its shareholders, the ressources for profit. The most current immigration process was that of hired-hands.»

Pierre Deshaies St-Cyr arriving in Canada in 1665, is my first ancestor in this country and also of the Deshaies, Deshays, Deshais, Deshaie, Dehai, St-Cire, Sincire, Sinsire, SCyr, St-Cyre, Saint-Cyr and St-Cyr families. All these names share a common ancestor with Pierre Deshaies St-Cyr born in France on March 12, 1648 in Upper-Normandy.

Village of Sainte-Pazanne, Bretagne, France

This society comprised of a hundred or so shareholders were held to populate New France with 4000 French Catholics within 15 years. Each shareholder were required to give 3000 pounds and actively pursue immigration to New France.

In 1628, the English capture the Compagnie's ships and in 1629 the colony's ships. The latter is returned to France in March 1632. This catastrophe leads the Compagnie's demise. In 1645, La Compagnie transfers its North American fur trading Monopoly to La Communauté des Habitants. The Compagnie des Cent Associés is dissolved on February 24, 1663. Canada then becomes a royal colony.

In 1627, the population of New France numbers only a hundred or so souls. Cardinal Richelieu's Policy ensures that French Canada remains French Catholic.

Its purpose was to establish the French empire from Florida to the Arctic and from the Atlantic to the unknown West. It also held a monopoly on the fur trade.

On February 22, 1672, Pierre Deshaies St-Cyr receives from Michel Godefroy, his first land titles of three river front acres by 20 acres deep on the Saint-Michel River in Bécancour. The transaction is notarized by Severin Ameau. On September 13, 1674, Father Louis Nicolas, representing the Jesuits, concedes another tract of land in Batiscan. This is notarized by Antoine Adhemar.

An official transaction signed on May 26, 1676 indicates that Pierre Deshayes from Batiscan and Jean Lariou join together to construct a 30 by 24 foot barn for Thomas de Lanouguère's seigneury in Ste-Anne de la Pérade.

At 28 years of age, on September 13, 1674, Pierre Deshaies St-Cyr sets himself up on piece of land in Batiscan. On July 12, 1676, he marries Marguerite Guillet at the Cathedral in Cap de la Madeleine. Marguerite's father, Pierre Guillet, carpenter, was from La Rochelle, France.

Militia Captain

The foundation of the Canadian Militia dates back to Governor Frontenac. At that time, settlements along the coast line were maintained by a missionary who went from post to post. Parishes were not yet organised. One Coast Line Captain was responsible for several groups. Later, when the groups increased in population, a parish was formed allowing for a Militia Captain to be named. My ancestor Pierre Deshaies St-Cyr was named to such a post.

It was the Militia Captain who received and communicated to the parishioners the governor's orders. He was also the bailiff. From time to time he had to perform military drills which for Canadians was confined only to target shooting. Militia service was unpaid work. All settlers were however recognized as duty officers to the crown. This honour was their salary.

Pierre Deshaies St-Cyr was born on March 12, 1648 at the Saint-Vivien Church, Rouen in Normandy, France. With Marguerite Guillet Lajeunesse, they had 7 girls and 5 boys. Marguerite Guillet was the daughter of Pierre Guillet Lajeunesse and Jeann St-Pair.

Upon his arrival in New France, Pierre Deshaies St-Cyr decided to remain in Quebec in Lower Canada. He helped unload cargo from the vessel as witnessed by his signature on the ship's manifest. He sought work amongst the general population. He then made his way to Trois-Riviere as per the 1666 census.

On May 3 1650, Alexandre Saint-Cyr, Marie-Anne Deshaies and their two sons render visit to their uncle Hubert Deshaies in Sainte-Pazanne, Brittany. This uncle being of an advanced age, proposes that if they moved over to work the farm and take care of him, the land would be theirs upon his passing. This offer was accepted. Alexandre and Marie Anne lived for another 45 years on this farm. They had another 9 children for a total family of 12.

At 19 years old, he found work as a hired-hand for Marie Boucher, widow of Etienne Pepin, landlord of de Lafond, living at Trois Riviere who owned land north of Ste-Cecile, Trois Riviere. Marie Boucher was the sister of Governor Pierre Boucher of Boucherville.

Pierre Deshaies St-Cyr was one of the first settlers in Bécancour. The census of 1681 show that there were 15 citizens living there. The 1681 census records the following persons : The seignorial landlord, Michel Godefroy de Lintôt and his family, the explorer Nicolas Perrot, Jean Vintonneau, Pierre Frèrot the shoemaker, François Bibault, Martin Massé, the tailor Michel Chaudron, Pierre Bourbaut, Michel David, Louis Brisse, Jean Coquineau, Pierre Champout and Simon Darmes.

The land registry of 1685 and 1709 locate his land to the east of the then called Saint-Michel River close to the seigneurial home. It was a concession of 3 acres or ¼ of a land measurement.

Pierre Deshaies leases from Pierre Leboulanger on June 28th, 1678 a four year cow for three years which is notorized by Joseph Caron.

At census time, Pierre Deshaies St-Cyr is 33 years and his wife is 21 years old. They have two daughters, Marie-Catherine who is 3 years old and Madeleine who is a year and half. Eight acres are cleared since 1672. He has one leased cow.

He married Jeanne Saint-Père in 1648 in Trois-Rivières. He was one of the 14 first colonists chosen by Father Buteux in 1649 to come to Trois-Rivières.

Soon after, he sells his land to Nicolas Perrot and establishes himself in Bécancour. Nicolas Perrot was known as an explorer who crossed the American continent in pursuit of the fur trade.

Nicolas Perrot

Commander in Chief of Western Canada, he exercised with discretion his authority with the First Nations. Servant to the Jesuits, language interpreter and skillful mediator, he is renowned for bringing peace between the First Nations' tribes from which he was able to forge alliances with the French colony. Militia captain, he was in charge of the whole Bécancour coastline.

The influence of « La Compagnie des Cent Associés »

At its beginning in 1660, La Compagnie could boast that it attracted 5000 immigrants. Amongst the immigrants 3% were nobles and 8% were of the bourgeois class. The rest comprised of contracted commoners who came under three year contracts which paid for transportation, an annual salary and return transportation, if desired, to France once their obligations completed.

The passengers are hired to work in Lower-Canada. The ship leaves Saint-Malo on February 10, 1665 and arrives in Quebec, New France on June 16th, 1665. At that time, there are 3,138 souls in the colony.

It took 121 days to cross the Atlantic. Pierre Deshaies St-Cyr left behind his homeland, his family, his well-being and his friends to come to an unknown hostile and uncivilized continent. France at that time was in crisis having coming out of the Hundred Years War (1337-1453). Hostilities between France and English persisted and alternated between years of peace till 1451 thus the name the Hundred Years War.

Pierre leaves behind his mother Marie Anne Deshaies and his father Alexandre St-Cyr living in Saint-Vivien de Rouen in Normandy. His father was living on the De la Mojetiere Farm in Sainte-Pazanne, Brittany, France. This farm was owned by Marie-Anne Deshaies's uncle Hubert Deshaies.

On September 18th, 1689, Pierre Deshaies St-Cyr of Bécancour and Marguerite Guillet, sign a sales agreement with the merchant Pierre Leboulanger, for the sum of 355 pounds for the sale and delivery of merchandises.

Pierre Deshaies St-Cyr signs a sales agreement for 13 bushels of wheat from Pierre Lesieur, notary public from Batiscan on January 10th 1694. This sale is notorized by Jean Cusson. On November 20th, 1696, Pierre Deshaies St-Cyr sells 3/21 acres of land at Bécancour to Jacques Sauvage of Champlain which was notorized by Daniel Normandin.

Pierre Deshaies St-Cyr spent the rest of his life in Bécancour. He died on June 6th, 1732 at the age of 84 years old. He was buried the next day in Bécancour. He was militia captain for his parish. He served in the militia for both the fiefdom of Dutort or Lintôt in 1776 in the parish of Bécancour.

On July 12 1676, Pierre Deshaies takes for wife in Cap-de-la Madeleine, Champlain, Marguerite Guillet born in the same parish, on August 17th, 1660 but baptised in Trois-Rivières on August 22, 1660. She was the daughter of Pierre Guillet dit Lajeunesse and Jeanne St-Pair. Her parents farmed in the Seigneurie of Lintôt as indicated in the 1681 census.

Marguerite Guillet gives birth to 12 children, 5 sons and 7 daughters. The 1681 census mentions Pierre Deshaies twice. He is still employed by Marie Boucher in Cap-de-la Madeleine and his family is settled in the Lintôt Seigneury in Bécancour.

The Deshaies St-Cyr family has deep roots in the Bécancour and Nicolet area of Québec. A vast number of surnames such as Deshaies, St-Cire, Saint-Cyr, St-Cyr, Tourigny, Sirene and Cyrenne have all in common Pierre Deshaies St-Cyr as their ancestor.

The second source

The second source of the St-Cyr family tree is that of Mathieu Rouillard St-Cyr, born around 1636 at Notre-Dame de Cogne, Aunis, France, son of Guillaume Rouillard, farmer, and Jeanne Cardineau of Notre-Dame de Cogne, Larochele, Aunis, France.

Guillaume Rouillard, son of Jean Rouillard and of Louise Garnault. Born in 1608 at La Charentes, France and deceased on 24/11/1663 in Larochele, Aunis, France. Married to Jeanne Cardineau in St-Georges de Rex, France on 26/11/1634 at the age of 26 years old. Married at 40 years old in Larochele on 13/11/1648 to Catherine Clercq.

As of 1658, he signs on as an «employee of the West» (woodsman). On June 26, 1667, at Cap-de-la-Madeleine, Mathieu Rouillard marries Jeanne Guillet, Marguerite Guillet's sister who was married to Pierre Deshaies St-Cyr. The Rouillards settle in Batiscan and the 1681 census records that they have three heads of cattle and 15 acres of land in value.

From this union, eight children are born of which four sons and four daughters. Three of the sons, Jacques St-Cyr, Mathieu Prénouveau and Jacques Fonville marry the Trottain sisters, (Geneviève, Marguerite, Charlotte) whose father, François Trottain St-Surin was the seigneurial notary public. François's wife was Jeanne Hardy.

Mathieu Rouillard, who married Jeanne Guillet in June 1667 and Jean Moreau who married Pierre's, Anne Guillet in 1667 also received land concessions.

Consequently, we know that Mathieu came to New France before 1666.

At that time, the colony was continually under attack by the Iroquois. Many lost their lives to these attacks that undermined the colony's development. In June of 1665, Alex de Prouville, the Marquis de Tracy,

New France's lieutenant general of the king's troops arrives in Québec followed by M. de Courcelles, New France's new governor.

Jean Talon, intendant along with 20 contingents of the Carignan Regiment land in Québec along with several colonists their families and hired hands. The new leaders had for mission to ensure the colony's immediate security. Tracy had forts erected along the Richelieu. Courcelles started to attack the Mohawks who were members of the Iroquois Confederation. Mathieu Rouillard volunteered on these attack missions.

The Marquis de Tracy began a new campaign several months later. Mathieu answers the call to military service again. Tracy takes command of 1300 men composed of 600 soldiers and 600 militia along with a hundred or so Algonquins and Hurons allies.

This military campaign frightened the Iroquois who sued for peace thereafter.

Mathieu and Damien are also become «employee's of the West» and take part on expéditions to Upper-Canada. Jacques adopts the surname St-Cyr to honour his godfather Pierre Deshaies St-Cyr.

Born around 1674, he marries Geneviève Trottain on January 7th, 1702. Jacques becomes a judge and provost in Batiscan where he dies in on December 9th, 1749 at the age of 75.

In 1682, René Robert Cavelier, Lord of de la Salle, led an expedition at the mouth of Mississippi River. On the 9th of April, he erects a cross and column bearing the arms of his most Holy Christian Majesty and buried an enscripted copper plaque somewhere on the West bank of the river between Venise and Chef de Passes claiming this vast Mississippi Valley and all its tributaries for the king of France. He names this new territory Louisiana for Louis XIV of France. It appears that the French captain, Bienville built a fort just upriver. It is possible that Mathieu Rouillard was part of this expedition.

In 1700, Bienville and Iberville constructed the first fortification, near Phoenix, which they named Fort du Mississippi and later Fort de la Boulaye. This was the first white colony in Louisiana. In 1707 the fort had to be abandoned due to increased hostilities with the Amerindians. Later, two military installations were built just below the original site de Triumph that is to say Fort Jackson on the west bank and Fort St. Philip facing the river where the civil war started in 1812.
